1. There has been a slight change in the Polish Government's attitude toward Gomulkaism. This change however, will not bring about the release of Gomulka from prison. Gomulka's former adherents are being returned to public and official life. They are not being treated as traitors or enemies of the state, but as Party deviators.
2. Wladyslaw Bienkowski and Edward Kliszko (a former political general) have for some time now been directors of a state publishing firm and printing house. Lately, Colonel Mieczyslaw Moczar has appeared in public; he is an alternate member of the Central Committee of the PZPR (Polish United Workers' Party). At one time Moczar was a follower of Gomulka and fell into disgrace with the Party; he was sent to Olsztyn Voivodship for "rehabilitation".
